A change in family status (marriage, divorce, etc.) may not effectively change a designation of beneficiary. However, pursuant to Florida Statutes §732,703, divorce or annulment may void the election of a former spouse as a designated beneficiary. To ensure that your assets are paid as you want them to be, keep your beneficiary updated.

By my signature below, I acknowledge that under Florida law a change in my marital status (marriage, divorce, annulment) may affect the Plan's ability to pay benefits to the above designated beneficiary and that it is my responsibility to notify the Office of Retirement of any changes to my designated beneficiary. I understand that if an updated form is not on file at the time of my death specifically designating my "former spouse" as my beneficiary, then my former spouse may be treated by the plan as automatically predeceasing me and he or she will not receive a benefit from the plan.

The foregoing designation of beneficiaries revokes any and all prior designations of beneficiaries (if applicable). I also acknowledge that it is my responsibility to notify the Board of Trustees of the Boynton Beach Firefighters' Pension Fund or their designee should any change in beneficiary be necessitated in the future, or if there is (are) any other change(s) that may affect the accuracy of this form.
